世界フリースタイルスケートボード協会（WFSA）が2018年のフリースタイルスケートボードの世界ランキングを発表。

横浜市在住の土田美玲（18歳）が女子ランキングで世界1位となった。土田はスケートボードの普及活動を行うNPO法人横浜スケートボード協会（YSA）のデモライダー。

2020東京オリンピックでは「ストリート」「パーク」の2種目が正式競技となったスケートボード。オリンピックを前に、両種目では男女とも、日本の若者が世界を舞台に大活躍をしている。

そうした中、「フリースタイル」の種目でも、横浜市の土田美玲（18歳）が2018年の女子部門で世界ランキング1位となった。

countries, including Switzerland, Hungary and Brazil, will be competing for $10,000 in prize money, showing off their best technical tricks and choreographed freestyle routines that are sure to leave spectators in awe.

When asked who he was looking forward to seeing skate the most, organizer Monty Little listed several competitors, and said this year's event would feature both new skaters and last year's crowd favourites.

Little said that performances from some of year.”

Another one to watch is Mirei Tsuchida, the sole female competitor, who is a “phenomenal skater” and “all-round competitor,” said Little.

Canada will also have strong representation in the four-day competition. White Rock's Andy Anderson, who is billed as a “household name in the Lower Mainland's skateboarding community,” will return after placing fourth in the pro division last year.

And Ryan Brynelson, a professional rider from Delta, will return for his sixth World Round-Up competition. Brynelson and the World Round-Up demonstration team will be showcasing their skills in community events throughout Cloverdale leading up to the rodeo, such as the bed races (see page 25) and the rodeo parade (see page 20).

Be sure to check out the World Freestyle Round-Up at the country fair — it's not often you get so much talent in one arena. Spectators can watch the qualifiers on Friday, May 18, the semi-finals on Saturday, May 19, and the finals on Sunday, May 20. Although the main competition comes to the end on Sunday, the fun continues on Monday, which features several trick contests, such as the 360 Spin Off, Best Handstand Trick and Longest Coconut Wheelie.

Scoring Rules

- 1) Everyone gets one point per person they beat from their own division
- 2) Ams get one extra point per pro they beat in a Pro/Am
- 3) Pros get half a point for beating an Am in a Pro/Am
- 4) Score totals for each local rider in an event are halved (i.e. Brazilians get half points in a Brazilian event) to reduce the effect of bias and to prevent more active nations from dominating the rankings
- 5) Score totals from a non-standard event are halved (i.e. events which use shorter run lengths)
- 6) Tie-breaks are decided by placements at World Championships; if a skater didn't attend the World Championships, he is considered to be in last place
- 7) Women's rankings are decided by scores from all events and divisions a female skater enters
