The CJPF Award 2025 was established to promote the Cool Japan Strategy, aiming to share Japan’s charm and appeal with the world and expand its global fan base. With inbound tourism recovering in the post-pandemic era and interest in Japan rising, the award recognizes outstanding initiatives that contribute to these goals.

The “Project (Business) Category” recognizes and honors initiatives that enhance the experience of Japan’s charm for overseas expansion and inbound tourism. “THE SUMO HALL HIRAKUZA OSAKA” was awarded for its outstanding contribution as a project that allows visitors to experience “sumo,” a traditional Japanese sport with over 1,500 years of history, in an accessible and engaging way.

■ About the Award-Winning Project

Opened in May last year in Namba Parks, Osaka Minami, "THE SUMO HALL HIRAKUZA OSAKA" is an inbound-focused sumo entertainment show hall dedicated to showcasing the charm and appeal of Japan's traditional sport, sumo, which boasts a history of over 1,500 years. From Osaka, it brings the thrill of sumo to audiences worldwide, offering a unique cultural experience tailored for international visitors.

The sumo entertainment show, performed entirely in English, combines dynamic visuals, immersive sound, and dramatic lighting, featuring former professional sumo wrestlers.

The program offers a rich and engaging experience through:

1. An introduction to sumo's history using stunning audiovisual effects.
2. An explanation of sumo techniques and rules with a touch of humor.
3. Exciting live sumo matches, showcasing the power and skill of the wrestlers.
4. A hands-on sumo experience, where selected audience members can challenge a wrestler in the ring.
5. A commemorative optional group photo session, open to all guests.

Beyond sumo, the experience is further enriched with authentic Japanese cuisine, including Makunouchi Bento (traditional Japanese boxed meals) and the sumo staple Chanko Nabe (hotpot stew). Additionally, a professional Rakugo storyteller serves as the show's MC, adding a uniquely Japanese comedic flair. Together, these elements create an accessible and immersive cultural experience, making it easy for international visitors to engage with Japanese traditions in a fun and interactive way.

In less than six months since its opening, THE SUMO HALL HIRAKUZA OSAKA welcomed its 10,000th visitor. As of March 2025, we have welcomed guests from approximately 90 countries and regions around the world.

Moving forward, THE SUMO HALL HIRAKUZA OSAKA will continue to provide new ways to experience Japanese culture through sumo entertainment, creating a space where even more people can enjoy sumo in an accessible and engaging way. Additionally, we are expanding our international outreach, further promoting Japanese culture to audiences around the world.
