

Update Company and Get ¥200,000 prize money! “SUN Idea Contest 2022” has been held.

SUN (Headoffice: Minato-ku, Tokyo, President and CEO: Shumpei Nakasone) has held the "SUN Idea Contest 2022" for ideas to update the company. Grand prize is ¥200,000, and second prize is ¥100,000.

Since SUN was founded in 2018, we have valued "employee voices" to grow the company. Various benefits such as "fashion allowance," "card game event for recruitment," and "family event" were born from employees' voices. As a corporate philosophy of "connecting people with people," SUN has an open and supportive environment where it is easy for employees to voice their opinions.

Another benefit of the contest is to encourage interaction among employees. Employees with the similar dreams and visions can get together and join the competition as a team, planning and sharing their ideas for the future of the company.

Recently, about 80% of SUN employees work remotely. We also expect this contest to make a positive influence on the issue of estrangement and isolation in the work environment during pandemics.

■About "SUN Idea Contest 2022"

1. Creative and unrestricted ideas to update the company are requested
2. A great opportunity to give the company a fresh air with your ideas.
3. Build new networks and relationships across locations and departments.
