

Fall 2025 International Education Expo to Be Held in October

A One-Day Event to Explore the Full Spectrum of English and Global Education

100 Schools and Organizations Participating to Help Families Discover the Right Path for Their Child

In October 2025, Japan's largest international and bilingual education event, the Fall 2025 International Education Expo, will be held in Tokyo, Osaka, and Fukuoka. This one-day event brings together over 100 schools and education organizations, including international schools, bilingual programs, and Japanese public and private institutions with a strong focus on global education. The Expo offers families a rare chance to explore diverse academic pathways, experience the future of learning, and connect directly with school representatives.

Following a record-breaking Spring event that drew more than 2,400 attendees and earned a 95% satisfaction rate, this fall's Expo promises even greater scale and impact. Visitors can expect informative school briefings, expert-led talk sessions, and hands-on experiences that illuminate real-world opportunities in English education, global learning, and international university admissions.

Key Highlights

- Our Largest Event Yet with Over 100 Participating Schools
More than 60 schools and organizations in Tokyo and over 30 in Osaka are scheduled to exhibit. Attendees can compare multiple schools in one day and gain insight into admissions, curriculum design, global pathways, and scholarship options.
